 Hospital and Outpatient services (surgeries, emergency care), Physician exams,
 Durable medical equipment (canes, wheelchairs, braces, walkers, etc.), Vaccinations (flu, pneumonia, Hepatitis B, etc.), Diabetic care (foot care, glucose monitors, lancets, test strips, etc.), Mammograms, Pap Smears, Pelvic Exams, Medical testing, Cancer care (screening, medications, treatments, radiation therapy, etc.), Transplants (dialysis, heart monitors, etc.), Colonoscopy and other medical expenses.
- Medical prescriptions
- Medical insurance premiums
- Clinical Laboratory Services (blood tests, urinalysis, etc)
- Dentures, dental care (exams, checkups, cleaning, fillings, crowns, braces etc.)
- Hearing aids (exams, equipment, etc.)
- Eye glass prescriptions and associated expenses such as eye surgeries (cataract, medications, equipment, laser treatments, etc.) and medications
- Orthopedic shoes
- Therapy (physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech/language therapy)
- Counseling (mental/emotional/physical health and well-being) & Medical/Health related classes (dietary, diabetic self-care training, etc.)
- Home health services, Acupuncture, Chiropractor, Podiatrists.

If any items are in question or not listed but you feel would apply, please call RMDC, Inc. Senior Corps at 406-457-1680 to inquire.

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

RMDC, Inc. Senior Corps Programs values the protection of confidential information. Volunteers will not discuss or otherwise divulge any information concerning a client/client family, student/student family, caregiver, peers, volunteer station staff and others whom they interact with as a volunteer except on a need-to-know basis for the benefit of the client/student or volunteer station staff. Examples of the need-to-know basis are:

- When the adult aged client gives permission (only share the information that is absolutely necessary and check with the volunteer station manager beforehand).
- When the client/student is in a life-threatening situation.
- When the volunteer suspects a client/student is being abused/neglected (Foster Grandparents & Senior Companions are designated mandatory reporters by law and are required to report suspected abuse).

Violation of confidentiality includes any information given without the volunteer station supervisor and individuals' permission. This includes all forms of correspondence including but not limited to Facebook and other Social Media sites. It may be difficult to resist relaying information to others. Particularly if you believe that sharing it would be in the person's/volunteer station best interest or if you feel there is no harm intended in the information you share. Despite what your personal beliefs are, you must respect confidentially. Please remember, these relationships and all the information you learn in the relationship, is considered confidential.

If the Foster Grandparent Program, Senior Companion Program or your volunteer station has site meetings, much information is exchanged and overheard that all volunteers are expected to keep confidential. This includes monthly in-services. As volunteers, you must use a common sense approach to deciding what needs to be shared in the group versus a private meeting. If you are ever in doubt, please ask the volunteer station or call the Senior Corps staff and we will direct you as to how to proceed.

Volunteers will be required to sign the Confidentiality Agreement upon enrollment and annually each year. *Disregard for confidentiality may be cause for dismissal from service.*Questions? Call RMDC, Inc. Senior Corps staff at 406-457-1680.

Applicant Rights and Consent to Fingerprint

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

- You must be provided written notification⁸ by Rocky Mountain Development Council, Inc. Senior Corps Programs that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.
- You must be provided, and acknowledge receipt of, an adequate Privacy Act Statement when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement should explain the authority for collecting your information and how your information will be used, retained, and shared.
- If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for employment, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
- The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or updating of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.⁹

You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.¹⁰

If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at http://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks.

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI at the same address as provided above. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency.

If a change, correction, or update needs to be made to a Montana criminal history record, or if you need additional information or assistance, please contact Montana Criminal Records and Identification Services at dojitsdpublicrecords@mt.gov or 406-444-3625.

Your signature below acknowledges this agency has informed you of your privacy rights for fingerprint-based background check requests used by the agency.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Social Security Account Number (SSAN). Your SSAN is needed to keep records accurate because other people may have the same name and birth date. Pursuant to the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a), the requesting agency is responsible for informing you whether disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority your SSAN is solicited, and what uses will be made of it. Executive Order 9397 also asks Federal agencies to use this number to help identify individuals in agency records.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Additional Information: The requesting agency and/or the agency conducting the application-investigation will provide you additional information pertinent to the specific circumstances of this application, which may include identification of other authorities, purposes, uses, and consequences of not providing requested information. In addition, any such agency in the Federal Executive Branch has also published notice in the Federal Register describing any systems(s) of records in which that agency may also maintain your records, including the authorities, purposes, and routine uses for the system(s).
