

6,264 Individuals Served

3,892 Households Served

Serving Lewis & Clark, Broadwater, and Jefferson Counties, with some programs serving additional areas.

Housing Services

Helping individuals and families find and maintain safe, stable housing.

382 affordable housing units operated in the tri-county area.

138 individuals experiencing homelessness received case management and referrals.

157 individuals received housing stability services.

Energy Services

Helping households stay safe, warm, and energy secure.

3,181 individuals experienced reduced energy burden through Energy Services.

3,163 individuals received LIHEAP utility payments.

144 individuals benefited from home improvements that enhanced their health and safety.

Early Childhood

Building strong foundations for lifelong learning.

144 children received Head Start services.

110 Head Start families received program services and referrals supporting family outcomes.

69 children received Rocky Mountain Preschool Center services.

Senior Services

Helping older adults maintain their independence through nutrition programs, senior centers, transportation assistance, caregiver support, Medicare and benefits counseling, long-term care advocacy, and connections to community resources.

3,636 older adults received meals across six counties, including 113,758 meals served to 1,917 tri-county seniors.

718 older adults received food boxes across six counties.

597 older adults received transportation services across six counties.

1,750 older adults received mediations or customer advocacy interventions.

Volunteer Programs

Engaging volunteers to strengthen our communities.

611 volunteers served our local communities with 177 through AmeriCorps Seniors.

96,779 volunteer service hours were provided across Rocky, including 69,609 hours through AmeriCorps Seniors.

The Retired and Senior Volunteer Program volunteers served 6 nonprofit agencies in the tri-county area.

Numbers reflect FY2025 service statistics and 2024–2025 school year data. Sources: CSBG Annual Report and Rocky program data.

2025 Rocky Impact Data Expanded

Housing Services

Helping individuals and families find and maintain safe, stable housing.

506

Individuals were provided with safe and affordable housing.

185

Individuals were provided with Rental Counseling.

9

Individuals avoided foreclosure.

Early Childhood Services

Building strong foundations for lifelong learning.

108

Head Start families were provided with financial literacy education.

288

Home visits were completed with Head Start families.

115

Head Start children were provided with developmental screenings.

42

Head Start families participated in Parenting classes.

Volunteer Programs

Engaging volunteers to strengthen our communities.

97

RSVP volunteers provided

11,095

hours of volunteer service across 6 non-profits.

45

SCP volunteers provided

31,403

hours of volunteer service in 7 counties.

35

FGP volunteers provided

21,111

hours of mentoring K-12 students with school readiness in 6 counties.

83

Volunteers provided

5,176

hours of service for our MOW Program in the tri-county area.

Senior Services

Helping older adults maintain their independence through nutrition programs, senior centers, transportation assistance, caregiver support, Medicare and benefits counseling, long-term care advocacy, and connections to community resources.

Rocky Agency on Aging

Rocky's Agency on Aging proudly serves Area IV, one of Montana's nine designated Area Agencies on Aging, providing services and supports to older adults and caregivers across six counties: Broadwater, Gallatin, Jefferson, Lewis and Clark, Meagher, and Park.

4,628

Older adults were served across six counties.

388

Older adults participated in exercise classes.

472

Older adults were provided with transportation.

109

Older adults or individuals with disabilities received in-home care.

Senior Nutrition & Transportation

Rocky's Senior Nutrition and Transportation Programs support older adults in Lewis & Clark, Jefferson, and Broadwater counties through congregate meals, Meals on Wheels, commodity food distribution, transportation services, and opportunities for social connection and volunteer engagement.

4,658

Commodity food boxes provided to older adults.

1,250

Older adults received meals in Senior Centers.

667

Older adults received meals through Meals on Wheels.

70

Older adults in Helena were provided with transportation.

